About the Director

A life-long soccer fanatic, Greg Giordano was a four-year player at Messiah College (Grantham, PA) and member of Messiah's 2000 and 2002 National Championship teams. He's the coach of the varsity girls team at Wesleyan Christian Academy (High Point, NC), and taught physical education pre-K through Grade 9.

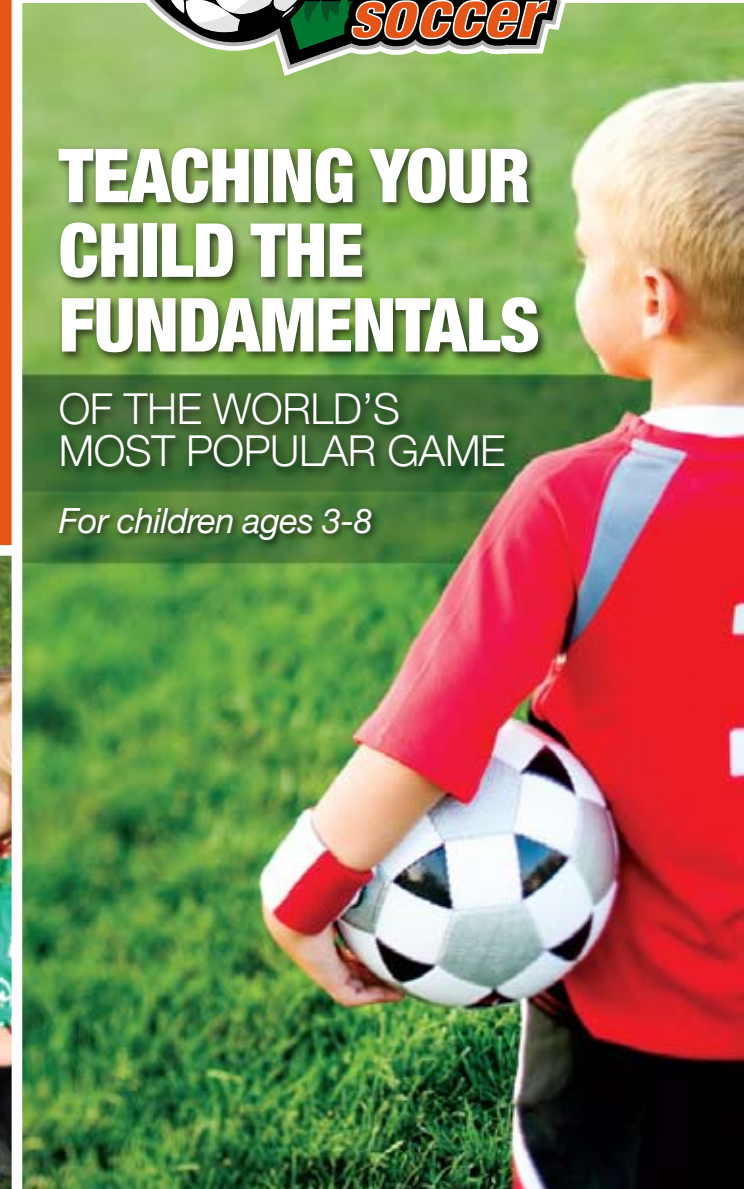

Greg designed the Kinder Kixx curriculum to introduce children to the game that has played a huge role in his life. His hope is that your child will enjoy the same rich experiences he has had through team play, individual goal-setting and good, clean fun.

The Fun & Positive Way to Learn Soccer Skills!

Soccer has taken the country by storm! What was once an unfamiliar sport played in Phys Ed class is now a part of communities all over the United States.

Soccer is an exciting, fast-paced game that gives kids an opportunity to exercise, enjoy the outdoors, stimulate their minds, and learn positive team play.

The Kinder Kixx program will introduce your child to the fundamentals of the game, giving them the foundation they need to progress into youth leagues, school sports programs, club teams and beyond.

Kinder Kixx Goals & Values

Soccer is an excellent tool to teach kids game skills and life skills! Through Kinder Kixx your child will have the opportunity to:

- Sharpen motor skills through our proven soccer curriculum.
- Enhance physical fitness through regular, safe exercise.
- Focus on teamwork and sharing through group participation.
- Develop character through lessons on honesty, fair play, respect, self control, and positive attitude.

How Kinder Kixx Works

Each session is held at the childcare center during school hours and is led by a qualified instructor.

Your child will learn:

- Warm-up: aerobics and stretches
- Word of the Day: learn a new soccer term
- Skills and Drills: learn and practice a new soccer concept
- Character in Action: focus on a life skill
- Play Time!: put your new skills into action
